Dear friends and colleagues,

It is our esteemed pleasure to invite you to “8th Annual Conference of the Association of Practising Pathologists, India (PATHCON & Lab Expo 2024), which is going to be held virtually on 20th (Friday) & in Physical mode at Manekshaw Centre, Dhaula kuan, New Delhi on 21st & 22nd (Saturday & Sunday) December 2024. This conference will bring together all of us who have put in a lifetime of effort to bring this association to this landmark event.

Participants will learn of the rapid development and spread of technical advancement in recent years, the people who made this possible and the necessary equipment, regulations and other requirements for setting up new centres. The scientific program will cover the latest developments in all discipline of Lab medicine. The emphasis will be on interactive sessions and panel discussions with clinical colleagues to encourage active participation of all delegates. We hope the students and residents will benefit from the experience of their colleagues and teachers and gather encouragement from the pioneers in research. Several well renowned speakers have confirmed their active participation, and this will add to the academic benefits of this conference. Save the dates in your diary today. We look forward to greeting you in what promises to be an exciting and fruitful meeting with a high scientific standard.

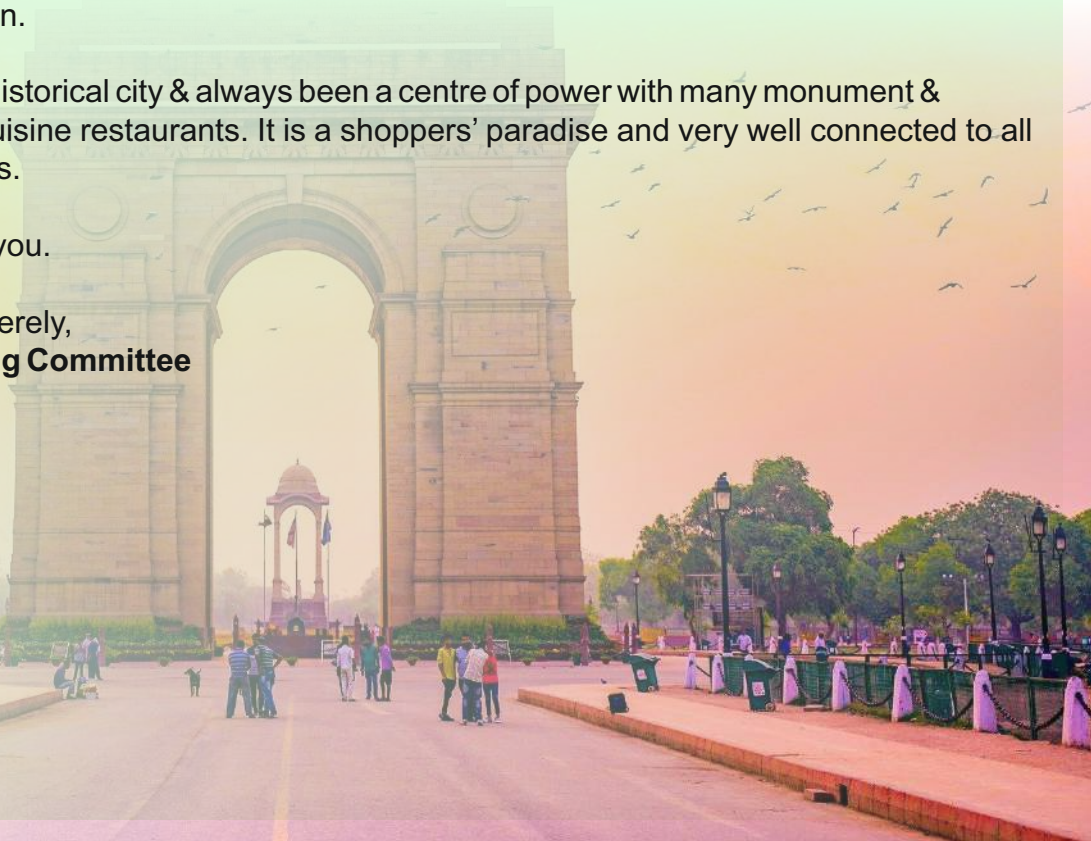

Keeping in mind the interest of our young participants, we shall be inviting posters and abstracts for oral presentation from all across the country and details are available on the website.

Delhi has a wide choice of hotel accommodation for different budgets. Kindly make your arrangements for travel and stay, well in advance. The weather in Delhi in December is cool and pleasant, though light jackets and woollens will be required. The organising committee welcomes all the delegates to avail the discounted early registration rates and actively participate in this landmark event in the history of our Association.

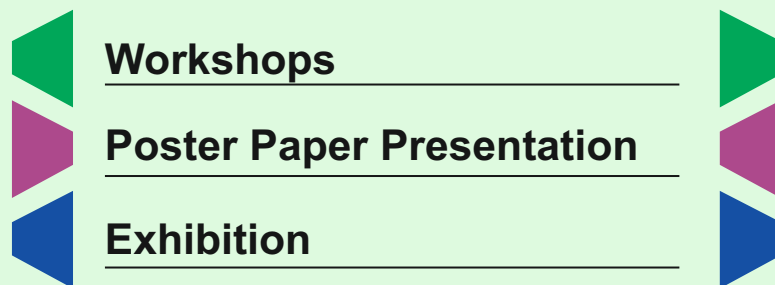

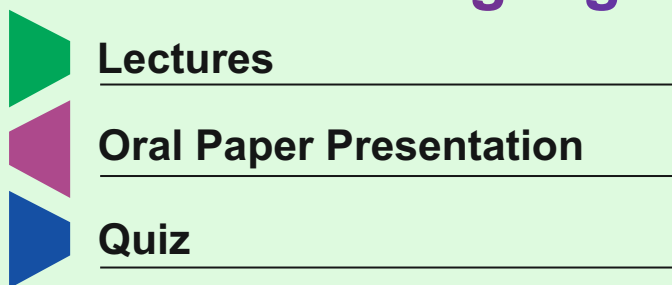

Delhi is a historical city & always been a centre of power with many monument & multiple cuisine restaurants. It is a shoppers' paradise and very well connected to all major cities.

Thanking you.

Yours sincerely,
Organizing Committee
